I have read a lot of self-help books, done hours of visualization, meditation, anchoring, changing submodalities and all sorts of techniques to get me motivated. But nothing comes close to the pearls of wisdom contained in this book. I'm also a paranoid schizophrenic and anyone who knows this illness will realize just how difficult it is for people like me to accomplish every day tasks. Yet all I have to do is read a couple pages of this book (or even a few paragraphs) and I'm willing to take on the world. Sometimes I read the same page a few times throughout the day and this gets me motivated to do whatever I need to do regardless if I feel like doing it or not. If this book cost fifty dollars it would still be a worthwhile investment. This is the bible of knowing how to get things done and I can't thank Mr. Djukich enough for making this information available as well as affordable.
